

My 36 year old daughter is disabled and in a wheel chair because of Multiple Sclerosis. Therefore in conjunction with Disability Insurance requirements she had to apply for and was granted Medicare. Medicare does not cover birth control and therefore supplemental insurance does not cover it either. As you look at Medicare services for those in the aged population, it is important to remember that Medicare is also covering some who are not that old.

Averil Strand, Community Health Services Director
Larimer County Department of Health and Environment, Fort Collins, CO