

Is a must for future Medicare/Medicaid spending due to the large number of people who are affected by chronic diseases.

These evidence based programs would save money instead of the costly secondary and tertiary care that is the normative now.

Thank you very much

Ann Shindo, PhD

Communicable and Chronic Disease Intervention Coordinator