Cast Iron Soil Pipe Foundation - Harold A. Slane

Foreign Trade and Tariff Committee, Lead Pencil Manufacturing Association - H.B. Van Dorn (with specific reference to pencils and leads)

A. U. Fox, Greenwich, Connecticut (Further reductions of tariff rates should be deferred until an overall long range foreign trade policy has been determined by the Congress, and then negotiations seeking reciprocal benefits should be conducted unilaterally.)

Chamber of Commerce of Niles, Michigan - Jack C Schick and Francis I. Cole.

Monsanto Chemical Company, Washington, D. C. - Edward W. Gamble, Jr.

U.S. Potters Association - E. L. Torbert (Hope that no further cuts in the tariffs will be permitted.)

Insulation Board Institute - Charles M. Gray (Opposes the proposed increase in tariff cutting authority.)

U.S. Wood Screw Service Bureau - George P. Byrne, Jr. (Objects to the further power given to the President to reduce tariffs at the rate of 5% per year for the next five years.

Mushroom Growers Cooperative Association of Pennsylvania - Walter W. Maule (Favors giving U.S. Tariff Commission rate making power.)

Providence Rubber Workers Federal Union, Providence, R.I. - Elviro Lostacco (Recommends that products which have been cut 80% of maximum since 1954 extension act be exempt from further cuts.

Atlantic Wire Company, Branford, Connecticut - W. E. Hitchcock, Jr. (Reduce tariff cutting authority from 25% or more to 10% or less.)

American Tariff League - Lewis E. Lloyd (opposed to further reduction in tariffs )

Synthetic Organic Chemical Manufacturing Association - R. Wolcott Hooker (Authority to reduce tariffs should be limited to 10% instead of 25% as proposed in House bill.)

Cordage Institute - Paul E. George (Favors adoption of Section 5 which would allow items on the free list to be made dutiable.)

American Flint Glass Workers Union of North America - Charles M. Scheff (Opposed to 25% reduction potential.)

American Cotton Manufacturers Institute, Inc. - Dan Daniel (Reduction not to exceed 5% per year on rates in existence January 1, 1955, for 2 years.)

Northern Textile Association - William F. Sullivan (Authority for reduction authority should be reduced.)

National Authority for Ladies Handbag Industry - Max Berkowitz (Opposes 25% reduction potential.)

Papermakers' Felt Association - Raymond J. Lee (Limit the President's authority to reduce tariffs in the case of industries whose tariffs have already been reduced significantly.)

Southern Garment Manufacturers Association - E. A. Morris (Tariff reduction by 5% per year, nonaccumulative and nonapplicable to any article on which a reduction has been made since January 1, 1955.)

National Association of Wool Manufacturers - Edwin Wilkinson (Congress must recapture its authority over any changes in duty rates.)

J. P. Stevens Company - Robert T. Stevens (Opposes any new authority to cut tariffs at this time.)

American Glassware Association - Carl W. Gustky (Authority to manipulate tariffs should be restored to the Congress.)

Leeds and Northrup Company - I. Melville Stein (Low U.S. tariffs should be made available to countries who truly reciprocate.)

Manufacturing Chemists Association - Richard F. Hansen (Opposes new rate reduction authority provided in bill.)

Chemstone Corporation - J. N. Beuthel (Opposes bill because it would al allow further reductions in duties on stone such as limestone.

St. Lawrence Seaway will provide such low rates that cheap stone from Canada will seriously affect the domestic industry, even at present rates.)

Crompton Company, Inc., - Howard Richmond (Opposes 25% reduction potential)

ESCAPE CLAUSE: Findings of Tariff Commission Should be Final

American Glassware Association - Carl W. Gustkey - Tariff Commission recommendations for relief should be final. Section re 2/3 majority of Congress should be deleted. Approves proposal that President must convene Congress before decisions of Tariff Commission can be over-ruled.

Leeds and Northrup Company - I. Melville Stein - Strongly object to section allowing Congress to override President in escape clause action.

The Tariff Commission should carry out Congressional policy and handle all details of individual tariffs.

Crompton Company, Inc. - Howard Richmond & Escape Clause findings by Tariff Commission should be conclusive as to injury. President should have support of Congress before being able to overrule the findings of Tariff Commission.

American Cotton Manufacturers Institute, Inc. - Dan Daniel - Recommends change in escape clause provisions so findings of Tariff Commission would be deemed final.

Textile Section, New York Board of Trade, Inc. - Ralph J. Bachenheimer - Tariff Commission peril point findings and recommendations should be made mandatory.

Atlantic Wire Company, Branford, Connecticut - W. E. Hitchcock, Jr. - Restore responsibility in escape clause to Congress.

CLAUSE: Findings of Tariff Commission Final Unless the Presi-parational Brotherhood of Cperative Potters - E. L. Wheatley

letal Lath Manufacturers Association, Cleveland, Ohio - Donald R. Wadle

Matson Manufacturers Association, Inc., New York - Merrill A.

papermakers' Felt Association - Raymond J. Lee - Tariff Commission recommendations on prevention of injury should be channeled to Congress rather than to the President ational Association of Wool Manufacturers - Edwin Wilkinson - The section providing 2/3 majority of Congress may override the President is unrealistic and inadequate. Resumption of Congressional authority should go beyond the more "doctoring" of the escape clause procedure.

P. Stevens and Company, Inc - Robert T. Stevens - Recommends the development of joint legislative executive functions to share the responsibility for escape clause decisions

American Knit Handwear Association - Harry Moss, Jr. - President should initiate Congressional action if he wishes to reject or modify Tariff Commission recommendations

Manufacturing Jewelers and Silversmiths of America, Inc. - Isador Paisner - There should be a revision of the whole escape procedure. Findings of Tariff Commission should be made effective unless the President can persuade Congress they should not be adopted.

S. Potters Association - E. L. Torbert - Recommends general strengthening of the escape clause

Final decision on Tariff Commission findings of injury should be restored to Congress.

F. L. -C. I. O. - Andrew J. Biemiller - Have long urged the strengthening of peril point and escape clause provisions. Wants a third alternative giving the President authority to turn down Tariff Commission recommendations if he marshalls the resources of the American Government in an effort to find a new line of work tandard Card Clothing Company, Stafford Springs, Connecticut - R. W. Bissonnette - Recommends amendment to provide Congress can overrule the President on escape clause cases by a simple majority rather than a 2/3 majority as proposed in bill

American Tariff League - Lewis E. Lloyd - Congress should be arbiter in cases where President and Tariff Commission disagree

Lee's Bicycle Shop, Tulsa, Oklahoma - L. Griffin Eckle - Congress should make the decision when the President and the Tariff Commission disagree

Clothespin Manufacturers of America - Richard A. Tilden - Findings of Tariff Commission should be final unless the President can persuade the Finance and Ways and Means Committees to reject them

National Milk Producers Federation - Patrick B. Healy - Opposed to President being able to disapprove of Tariff Commission recommendations.

Urges some control by Congress. Opposes section requiring 2/3 majority of Congress

Textile Workers, A. F. L. -C. I. O. - Solomon Barkin - Congress should establish a safeguarded level of national production. Tariff Commission decisions should be made effective unless Congress joins with the President in overruling them

The Thread Institute, Inc. - A. U. Fox - Tariff Commission decision should prevail unless Congress supports Presidential disapproval by majority vote

Senator Strom Thurmond - Proposes amendment to require President to get support of Congress before he can override Tariff Commission finding Rolled Zinc Emergency Committee - James E. Mack - Section of bill re 2/3 majority overriding President is a meaningless gesture

American Hardwood Plywood Manufacturers - Gordon R. Connor - Opposed to 2/3 majority section--it cannot operate--should be reversed, i.e., President should be required to get Congressional support

Bicycle Manufacturers Association of America - John Auerbach - Escape clause weak and hard on small industries

National Wool Growers Association - Edwin E. Marsh - We must restore to Congress some authority over Tariff Commission recommendations

Wine Institute - Don W. McColly - The bill pays only lip service to idea that Congress can arbitrate. Final judgment in such matters should rest with Congress

International Silver Company - Craig D. Munson - Supports Thurmond amendments

- National Association of Photographic Manufacturers, Inc. William C. Babbitt
- American Mining Congress Julian D. Conover Congress should again exercise its authority over tariffs
- pittsburgh Plate Glass Company David G. Hill Opposed to meaningless section about 2/3 majority of Congress overruling President
- Manufacturing Chemists Association Richard F. Hansen Opposes 2/3 majority section re overriding President by Congress ineffectual and meaningless.

GESTIONS - SHOULD BE STRENGTHENED, GENERAL AND SPECIFIC

Edwards and Angell, Providence, Rhode Island - Robert B. Dresser (strengthen)

Hardboard Association - Donald Linville (provide adequate escape clause)

Tanner's Council of America - Irving R. Glass (present escape clause not effective)

Northern Textile Association - William F. Sullivan (Congress should provide adequate rules on reclaim authority)

National Authority on Ladies Handbag Industry - Max Berkowitz (should be amended to permit small industries to exist)

American Paper and Pulp Association, N. Y.C. -Robert E. O'Connor (strengthen escape clause and provide so rates can be raised above 1934 level when needed)

Armstrong Cork Company - C. J. Backstrand (increase Tariff Commission authority under escape clause)

The Honorable John Jarman and W. A. Delaney, Jr. (escape clause needs strengthening)

Cherry Growers and Industries Foundation - J. Walter Hebert (define "competitive products" in escape clause to include raw agricultural products in category with processed ones)

The Carwin Company (Industrial Organic Chemicals) - Richard Kithil (escape clause is inadequate and present bill does not improve it)

Senator Warren G. Magnuson and Karl D. Loos (escape clause inadequate and State Department has been ignoring Congressional mandate to administer Trade Agreements subject to legislation concerning section 22. Something should be done.)

Cast Iron Soil Pipe Foundation - Harold A. Slane (bill should include that any subsidy by foreign countries should be automatically offset by tariff increase)

- ESCAPE CLAUSE: Too Strong in Bill as Proposed and in Present Act
  - American Watch Association, Inc., Washington, D. C. Michael B. Deane
  - Picker X-Ray Corporation Harvey Picker Favors eliminating escape clause provisions and role of Congress in overruling President
  - Greater Detroit Board of Commerce John C. Ray Requests "protectionist" provisions be deleted from bill
  - U. S. Council of the International Chamber of Commerce Philip Cortney Delete from bill and from the Act all escape clause provisions
  - Commerce and Industry Association of New York Vincent J. Bruno Opposed to bill where it provides for any duty increases
- Holland Steel Company, New York P. H. Garfunkel Opposes sections of bill providing for possible duty increases
- Linen Trade Association, Inc., New York Steward C. Carse Opposes section providing possible increase to 50% above 1934 rate
- Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, Massachusetts Richard Glenn Gettell - Objects to sections allowing President to raise tariffs by 50%
- Caterpillar Tractor Company, Peoria, Illinois William Blackie Opposed to President having power to raise tariffs by 50%
- Friends Committee on National Legislation Delbert E. Replogle Opposed to sections allowing tariffs to be raised
- Americans for Democratic Action Edward D. Hollander Opposed to sections of bill allowing 50% increase
- National Council of Importers Harry S. Radcliffe Opposed sections permitting duties to be increased 50% above 1934 rates.
- American Importers of Japanese Textiles Mike Masaoka No need for President having authority to increase duties 50% above 1934 level or to take items from free list
- United States Cuban Sugar Council Laurence A. Crosby

PERIL POINTS: CHANGE CRITERIA TO STRENGTHEN

Rolled Zinc Emergency Tariff Committee - James E. Mack (Tariff Commission should prepare list of items for trade agreements)

Textile Section, New York Board of Trade - Ralph J. Bachenheimer (Peril Point findings should be mandatory.)

Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company - David G. Hill, President

American Cotton Manufacturers Institute, Inc. - Dan Daniel (Practical and workable criteria for peril point determination)

Southern Garment Manufacturers Association - E. A. Morris (Establishment of a practical and workable criteria for the determination of peril points.)

NATIONAL SECURITY AMENDMENT: SHOULD BE STRENGTHENED AND ADOPTED

The Honorable Cecil H. Underwood, Governor of West Virginia Independent Petroleum Association of America - Robert L. Wood Oklahoma Independent Petroleum Association - Paul R. Schultz Independent Oil Producers and Landowners Association, Tri-State -Clarence E. Brehm

Federation of Independent Oil Unions - Elmo F. Rogers

American Mining Congress - Julian D. Conover

The Honorable Price Daniel Governor of Texas

Representative John Jarman of Oklahoma and W. A. Delaney, Jr. (National security should not be trusted to Office of Defense Mobilization)

Standard Card Clothing Association, Stafford Springs, Connecticut (National security section should be strengthened)

NATIONAL SECURITY AMENDMENT: OPPOSED OR REQUEST CAREFUL ADMINISTRATION

United States -Japan Trade Council - Nelson H. Stitt (Hopes that abuses under National Security section will not be allowed.)

National Oil Jobbers Council - Otis Ellis

QUOTAS: General - Including Foreign Quotas on U.S. Products

The Honorable William H. Purtell, Senator from Connecticut (Quotas can and should be used when there is a need and should be applied to manufactured and raw products as well as to agricultural items.)

- World Trade Club of Denver Rebecca F. Sabin (Quota restrictions be eliminated except in cases where the peril point has been reached and serious injury threatens an industry. Should import restrictions be approved by Tariff Commission and Administration, they should be removed at earliest practicable date.)
- National Farmers Union Reuben Johnson (Establish safeguards by "automatic fluctuating parity tariff, import quotas, or similar devices". Bill should be amended along the line of giving the Secretary of Agriculture authority to put on quotas when needed.)
- Millers' National Federation Gordon P. Boals (This Federation asked for adjustments in foreign restrictions on U.S. flour shipped abroad when last negotiations were announced but were disappointed in results. New foreign restrictions are made on exports of U.S. flour almost every week.
- Atlantic Steel Company Robert S. Lynch (Congress can control imports through tariffs and should do so.
- Mushroom Growers Cooperative Association of Pennsylvania Walter W. Maule (Favors enactment of legislation to grant the right to impose quotas on imports of any commodity.
- Citizens Committee for Stabilization Lead-Zinc Industry Flat River, Missouri T. J. Watkins *Recommends import quota system based on wage scale of foreign producers as an aid in regulating large scale dumping from extremely low wage areas. High quotas should be assigned to high scale wage areas.)
- Association of Cotton Textile Merchants W. Ray Bell (Suggests either an adequate tariff or import quotas.)
- Southern States Industrial Council Tyre Taylor (Where adequate protection cannot be afforded through upward adjustments under the Trade Agreements Program, fair and reasonable import quotas should be established.)
- United Hatters, Cap and Millinery Workers International Union Marx Lewis (Recommends quota system.)
- .U.S. Wood Screw Service Bureau George P. Byrne, Jr. (Endorses a quota system.)
- New England Export Club Irving Jay Fain (Quotas should be avoided except in unusual and critical cases.)

MOTAS: PETROLEUM - FOR:

The Honorable Cecil H. Underwood, Governor of West Virginia

Southern States Industrial Council - Tyre Taylor (Recommends an immediate and thoroughgoing review of the whole Trade Agreements Program and concept to determine whether this program and concept really serve America's best interest as a Nation)

U. S. Potters Association - E. L. Torbert (Questions whether unrestricted trade with other countries is a dependable instrument of foreign policy under today's circumstances; feels it has outlived its usefulness; convinced that a carefully regulated trade is now required; the path we have been following has created needless and avoidable dislocations here and abroad)

United Hatters, Cap and Millinery Workers International Union - Marx Lewis (Weask the Congress to establish as a fundamental objective of our international trade policy the promotion of fair labor standards in international trade. In determining tariff policies, our Government should exercise a process of selectivity. Expanding industries should be required to take their fair share of imports. Smaller and contracting industries should not be expected to shoulder the full burden. Believes one way of accomplishing this would be the introduction of a quota system)

American Paper and Pulp Association, N.Y.C. - Robert E. O'Connor (Urges that basic requirement of true and substantial reciprocity be made more clearly mandatory)

American Cotton Manufacturers Institute, Inc. - Dan Daniel (Favors mutually advantageous truly reciprocal trade among nations. Does not stand for protectionism or isolationism)
