

Executive Session to Consider Pending Nominations
Thursday, March 2, 2000
Off-the-Floor Markup in the President's Room, U.S. Capitol

The meeting was convened, pursuant to notice, at approximately 3:18 p.m. in the President's Room (U.S. Capitol). The Honorable William V. Roth, Jr., Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, presiding.

Present: Senators Hatch, Murkowski, Lott, Mack, Moynihan, Baucus, Rockefeller, Breaux, Graham, Bryan and Robb.

Also present: Mr. Franklin G. Polk, Staff Director and Chief Counsel; Mr. J.T. Young, Deputy Staff Director; Carla J. Martin, Chief Clerk; and, Mark Blair, Hearing Clerk.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you for being here. The purpose of this meeting is to favorably report the seven nominations to the IRS Oversight Board. While we received the nominations over a year after they were due, I want to report them out of the Committee as soon as possible so the Board may begin its important work.

Since we have a quorum present, I move to vote en bloc on the nominations of the following individuals to the IRS Oversight Board:

Mr. George L. Farr
Mr. Charles L. Kolbe
Ms. Nancy Killefer
Mr. Larry R. Levitan
Mr. Steve H. Nickles
Mr. Robert Tobias, and
Ms. Karen Hastie Williams

All in favor, signify by saying aye.

(Chorus of ayes)

Those opposed, signify by saying no.

SENATOR MACK: I want to be on record as voting no for Mr. Tobias.

(Editors note: Senator Mack voted aye en block and nay for Tobias)

MR. CHAIRMAN: The ayes have it. The nominations are ordered reported by voice vote.

[Whereupon the Committee adjourned at 3:22 p.m.]

Reported by Carla Martin, Chief Clerk.
