To amend title 31, United States Code, to ensure that persons who form corporations or limited liability companies in the United States disclose the beneficial owners of those corporations or limited liability companies, in order to prevent wrongdoers from exploiting United States corporations and limited liability companies for criminal gain, to assist law enforcement in detecting, preventing, and punishing terrorism, money laundering, and other misconduct involving United States corporations and limited liability companies, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

Mr. WYDEN (for himself and Mr. RUBIO) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on _____

A BILL

To amend title 31, United States Code, to ensure that persons who form corporations or limited liability companies in the United States disclose the beneficial owners of those corporations or limited liability companies, in order to prevent wrongdoers from exploiting United States corporations and limited liability companies for criminal gain, to assist law enforcement in detecting, preventing, and punishing terrorism, money laundering, and other misconduct involving United States corporations and limited liability companies, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Corporate Trans-
5 parency Act of 2017”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

8 (1) Nearly 2,000,000 corporations and limited
9 liability companies are being formed under the laws
10 of the States each year.

11 (2) Very few States obtain meaningful informa-
12 tion about the beneficial owners of the corporations 13 and limited liability companies formed under their 14 laws.

15 (3) A person forming a corporation or limited
16 liability company within the United States typically 17 provides less information to the State of incorpora-
18 tion than is needed to obtain a bank account or driv-
19 er’s license and typically does not name a single ben-
20 efiticial owner.

21 (4) Criminals have exploited the weaknesses in 22 State formation procedures to conceal their identi-
23 ties when forming corporations or limited liability
24 companies in the United States, and have then used 25 the newly created entities to commit crimes affecting

1 interstate and international commerce such as ter-
2 rorism, drug trafficking, money laundering, tax eva-
3 sion, securities fraud, financial fraud, and acts of 4 foreign corruption.

5 (5) Law enforcement efforts to investigate cor-
6 porations and limited liability companies suspected 7 of committing crimes have been impeded by the lack 8 of available beneficial ownership information, as doc-
9 umented in reports and testimony by officials from 10 the Department of Justice, the Department of 11 Homeland Security, the Financial Crimes Enforce-
12 ment Network of the Department of the Treasury,
13 the Internal Revenue Service, and the Government
14 Accountability Office, and others.

15 (6) In July 2006, a leading international anti-
16 money laundering organization, the Financial Action
17 Task Force on Money Laundering (in this section 18 referred to as the “FATF”), of which the United 19 States is a member, issued a report that criticizes
20 the United States for failing to comply with a FATF
21 standard on the need to collect beneficial ownership
22 information and urged the United States to correct
23 this deficiency by July 2008. In December 2016,
24 FATF issued another evaluation of the U.S., which 25 found that little progress has been made over the

1 last ten years to address this problem. It identified 2 the “lack of timely access to adequate, accurate and 3 current beneficial ownership information” as a fun-
4 damental gap in U.S. efforts to combat money laun-
5 dering and terrorist finance.

6 (7) In response to the 2006 FATF report, the 7 United States has repeatedly urged the States to 8 strengthen their incorporation practices by obtaining 9 beneficial ownership information for the corporations
10 and limited liability companies formed under the 11 laws of such States.

12 (8) Many States have established automated
13 procedures that allow a person to form a new cor-
14 poration or limited liability company within the 15 State within 24 hours of filing an online application,
16 without any prior review of the application by a
17 State official. In exchange for a substantial fee, 2
18 States will form a corporation within 1 hour of a re-
19 quest.

20 (9) Dozens of Internet Web sites highlight the 21 anonymity of beneficial owners allowed under the in-22 corporation practices of some States, point to those 23 practices as a reason to incorporate in those States,
24 and list those States together with offshore jurisdic-
25 tions as preferred locations for the formation of new

1 corporations, essentially providing an open invitation
2 to criminals and other wrongdoers to form entities
3 within the United States.

4 (10) In contrast to practices in the United 5 States, all 28 countries in the European Union are 6 required to have formation agents identify the bene-
7 ficial owners of the corporations formed under the 8 laws of the country.

9 (11) To reduce the vulnerability of the United 10 States to wrongdoing by United States corporations
11 and limited liability companies with hidden owners,
12 to protect interstate and international commerce
13 from criminals misusing United States corporations
14 and limited liability companies, to strengthen law en-
15 forcement investigations of suspect corporations and 16 limited liability companies, to set minimum stand-
17 ards for and level the playing field among State in-
18 corporation practices, and to bring the United States
19 into compliance with its international anti-money
20 laundering standards, Federal legislation is needed
21 to require the collection of beneficial ownership in-
22 formation for the corporations and limited liability
23 companies formed under the laws of such States.

24 SEC. 3. TRANSPARENT INCORPORATION PRACTICES.

25 (a) TRANSPARENT INCORPORATION PRACTICES.—

1 (1) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 53 of title 31,
2 United States Code, is amended by inserting after 3 section 5332 the following new section:

21 after date on which the formation agent
