I am a 67-year old pensioner living in the United Kingdom. I moved here in 1989 to marry my British husband. I have paid my UK and US every year and did not hide anything. I now find that I have not filed my US taxes properly and need to pay US tax on my UK ISAs (same as US IRAs). I bought my UK ISAs using taxed money and now I have to pay tax AGAIN to the US Government. It is an extreme hardship for me and has cost over $30,000 in tax as well as $10,000 in tax preparation fees. My little nest-egg is now depleted and I am wondering how I am going to survive in my old age.

Can you please help? I need residence-based taxation.
